one of these nights

so you leave me cold and lonely, layin' here with my thoughts wonderin' where you're runnin' to, now that you've been caught one of these days you're gonna need me one of these mornings you're gonna miss me one of these times you'll slip, one of these times you'll trip one of these nights you'll wonder where i'll be you put your love inside my heart, you cast me under your spell but you never stayed to see the dawn, your little game worked so well

chorus

why did you treat me this way, do you have some agenda to play you know i put my faith in you, there's still time for you to stay

i know you're gonna hit a wall and regret telling me so long i can find another lover who won't make me sing this song cierra skye

she grew up in the shadows of the mountains where the spirit of freedom still rings she was a girl of natural beauty she didn't need those big city dreams she grew up smart and grew up tough she could ride, rope and shoot when she found her passion as a woman she knocked me right out of my boots my cierra skye, sparkles like the milky way she warms my nights and she cools my days my cierra skye, she's a one-of-a-womankind she's always dancing right here inside my mind she can open my heart about anything she can have my cake and eat it too i've never feared that she would leave she's right here waitin' to hear i love you

chorus

she could take all i've got to show, i'd be happy to let it go she always tells me true, she does what she says she'll do she says things i want to hear, calling me honey, sugar and dear all the time she makes me feel so fine, i've just got to keep her near there's more where that came from i stood over that bully with my clinched fists and as he laid crying with his bloody nose i said you don't ever push anyone around again

'cause there's more where that came from

i got a lot more than some if you want to dance with me, be the best you can be

charging up that hill with my m-16 a blazin' sending enemy soldiers to meet their maker i yelled you won't step on this country again

now i lay in her loving arms every night sharing that sweet love that sets hearts on fire she said you can hold me as long as you want too

no permanent damage i've been having a little double vision, can't seem to make a decision ever since you said we were through, they say it's all a mental condition, that i don't believe your intentions and that i might be still missing you but there ain't no permanent damage i think i'll be able to manage i'll do just fine, when you're outta my mind 'cause there ain't no permanent damage i can't work, can't play, can't sleep, i can't sew and i can't reap so long after you said bye-bye i'm treading in deep water, it ain't cold, it's gettin' hotter my nerves are shot, 'cause you never told me why

i went to the doctor for tests, he said i was normal more or less he told me to find a new romance, the best thing he could prescribe, is to find me another bride told me to give my heart another chance i am the whisky grew up on a farm tending corn and wheat summer sweat on my neck, black dirt on my feet grain to feed the world came from my hands kept a bit for whisky, hid it from the man i am the whisky, it's a part of me i am the whisky, grown and free i am the whisky, an american blend let's have some whisky, cheers my friend showers on a tin roof, no better sound chill in the autumn air, snow on the ground daddy nipped a few, grandpa did it seems mama enjoyed her coffee with a little jim beam

chorus

plenty for our drink, plenty for our food god blessed this land to be sure divinely given freedom we entrust to see the whisky will endure why can't i love you if he won't does he hold you close when the world comes crashin' in does he really care for you or does he just pretend does he pull you close and light the passion in your soul or does his touch turn and leave you feelin' cold

why can't i hold you if he don't i'll take care of your heart now baby come to me

will he share all your dreams to make them come true will he sacrifice himself giving equally to you will he be there for you when you need a friend or will he be using you to meet his own ends

i've seen the way you look at me, i don't think you're in love with him are you with him because a promise was made you're a woman of your word but i know you're starved for love come on over to me don't be afraid king of the world

there wouldn't be old folks in the cold, there'd be no babies being sold army tanks would turn into tractors, ethnic cleansing ain't no factor no one to chase, no one to race, i'd make it a better place

if i were king of the world if i were king of the world, there'd be a smile on every face it'd be the law that we all stand tall we're all god's children called the human race over-crowded prisons won't exist, young people won't die to enlist crime couldn't pay anymore, there'd be plenty of food in the store disease wouldn't cut you short, there'd be no reason to abort women wouldn't be punching bags, children wouldn't need no i.d. tags

taxes would be in the past, marriage would be to last nature would have man's respect, our cities wouldn't fall to neglect there wouldn't be a need for drugs, the c.i.a. wouldn't need bugs no enemies of the state and two chickens on every plate

yeah, i'd make some serious changes around here.

i'd start with the human heart, and have it all torn apart.

i'd make it pump compassion, love and empathy inside our veins, maybe we'd all get a good look at ourselves... while we wait for the king's return love is a stranger i thought our love was good, i did everything i could you choked out the life of a thing called man and wife now love has become a memory love is a stranger who's walkin' away love doesn't live here anymore love is that stranger i'll never see again this stranger won't be knockin' on my door together we made a home, so we could love each other alone now i have to face all the time i misplaced and love is only a memory

strange how two lives can change overnight when one says one thing that just ain't right doesn't matter how many good times or laughs through the years it all comes raining down with the hurtin' tears

rhythm of life

all my friends think i'm crazy when i say that heaven was in your embrace now as i'm workin' through this hell i have only the memory of your angel face all the times i told you, all the times i would hold you our hearts found the rhythm of life now that you're gone, without your sweet, sweet song i can't find the rhythm of life

when i say that you're comin' back for me i don't know when you'll be waitin' but i need to feel your love eternally

chorus

i'll keep smilin' and lookin' up above, i'll be waitin' right here for your love they know my truck drinks cabbie, i'm happy you found me, seems i can't drive myself in town everytime i stop by the saloon, there's always police coming 'round for 20 years i've had this old truck, she's always got me home when i play but if i drove off down this backstreet, a big old cop would stop to make my day

'cause they know my truck drinks they're waiting, i know what they think if i stay for one or two, they'll cuff me when i'm through
'cause now they know my truck drinks so cabbie, take me down the alleyway, they'll wait all night past closing time i'll leave my truck under the neon moon and pick her up later without a fine

if i stay for three or four, i'll be arrested at the door

'cause now they know my truck drinks they don't have nothing better to do i guess, this town's too small and quiet to let it rest don't matter that i used to race daytona, they say i can't drive with dos corona

if i stay for five or six, i'll have to do their tricks

'cause now they know my truck drinks

thinkin' like a woman girls i got him trained after some years, it took a lot of patience and lots of tears but now he does the laundry and opens my doors he even stays home and helps with chores i finally got him feeling sensitivity, he's cooking, sewing, trading recipes he doesn't leave the seat up anymore and his drawers ain't laying all over the floor he's thinkin' like a woman, i like him that way he's thinkin' like a woman, most of the day but when night falls and lovin's in my head i want all of my man in the bed girls i got him trained after some years, to finally call me if he's had a few beers now he lets me know when he'll be home and where i can find him if he's alone he finally understands my romantic side, he gives me flowers when i start to cry he turns the tv off when i rub his feet 'cause monday night football can't compete

chorus

i still give him time to do the guy things, he's got plenty of friends who think i'm insane but when we make love and he's all man, i'm all the woman that he can stand

yeah girls, that's what i'm talking about... you can get your man with honey, honey... they like it sweet, but you gotta be consistent and train 'em up right... you know, almost like a puppy... love 'em all cuddly but don't be afraid to use that rolled up newspaper now and again... he'll love you for it, guaranteed. i ain't got no complaints... about him thinkin' like a woman.

small town carousel you asked me who's he seeing, lady are you new in town just wait a little longer, your turn will come around his girlfriend's with his wife's best friend but no one's gonna tell

'cause everybody's ridin' this small town carousel who's seeing who is a big concern, in this town we gotta know you don't lose your mate, you just lose your turn but they'll come back before you go you asked about the waiter, he just divorced number 4 if you can wait a little longer, he'll invite you through his door his ex is with his best friend but no one's gonna tell

'cause everybody's ridin' this small town carousel

that's the way it is out here, the pickin's are slim to none some give in to temptation, some just call it fun so they go 'round and 'round but no one's gonna tell

so they go 'round and 'round but no one's gonna tell

rock paper scissors when we were kids, me and janie would play hide and seek and new games everyday i never knew how much fun it would be when we learned rock, paper, scissors, one, two, three rock, paper, scissors, one, two, three, that time was the best for her and me if one of us lost, we both would win, we grew up the best of friends rock, paper, scissors, one, two, three romance was a natural with janie and me we kept playing that game where no one could see

time has passed and we've come around i see janie everyday in this small town we pass on the street we know what will be
rock, paper, scissors, one, two, three, this time is the best for her and me if one of us loses, we both win we wind up together again and again

romance is a natural with janie and me we'll rock all night 'til the sun we see
paper covers rock, and scissors cuts paper janie always knew what i was thinking her rock crushed my scissors, she winked and said it won't be long before you're back in my bed call me i see the way she flirts with all the young studs i see the way she takes your money and your time i saw her walk away when you gave her roses why do you want to be her valentine call me when you're tired of being used call me when you've had enough my number's in the book call me up when you're ready for love i hear the way she talks about you to her friends i hear her laughing 'bout getting her way i hear that she's seeing someone richer why do you take that from her and stay

chorus

i've always wanted to be by your side i've always wanted you to notice me i've always said i'd treat you so good why don't you come on home to me open your arms

i've been away from your arms for too long the reasons were between right and wrong everyday that went by without your sweet love made me send more prayers up above open your arms and close the door i don't have to leave you anymore i'll hold you all night, kiss you with the morning light so open your arms and close the door darling i'm never going to miss you again i'm sorry for the time we had to pretend everyday that went by without your sweet caress made me want you more than life itself

chorus

no one ever promised that love would be easy we never thought we'd be torn apart but now that i'm in your arms so soft and warm i feel the love i missed beating in your heart

chorus
