everyone got to believe something, everyone wants to understand everyone got to know reasons, to feel a part of the plan it's why we're told mysteries, fables, myths, and lies it's why we're sold fantasies, to believe though we die why do you need dogma, they push down your throat why do you want dogma, on that poison you will choke you don't need dogma, use your unwashed brain don't buy into dogma, don't play their game they turn us from our heritage, offer salvation for a price they teach excuses to hate, sell us health in place of life are we sure of planets and stars, is our world really in danger are we believing theories, are we becoming strangers

chorus

they say it's so and we believe pictures and words must be real this agenda will make them rich they don't care who dies in the deal one day must play harder, to generate buzz refine the chops, we're gettin' better some day, you'll hear them say one day, your turn will come one day, you'll get you some one day, you can play the game one day, you'll have your fame should tour longer, rewrite and co-write get street teamers, network and schmooze

chorus

everything you wanted is in reach, just be sure you never compromise they'll promise dreams that can't be done, always check your ego for size sexasaurus you're delectable, delicious and sweet thinking of you, turns up the heat on the town, hunt you down ooh so complete scent of love, you're all around track you baby, i won't make a sound don't fight it, i'm too excited i've got to love you down sexasaurus is my name sexasaurus is my fame hear me growl, i'm on the prowl your lovin' is my game prehistoric, i won't be tamed, one track mind, can't be blamed extinction not, you're so hot, my passions unrestrained who's dentures

i thought we had something together, your grandchildren got along with mine your daughter even sent me a christmas card with a coupon for gas-x and wine who's dentures are next to you tonight who's golf cart is on your patio the grocer said you bought some geritol a box of depends and anbisol who's dentures are next to you tonight

now you're playing mahjong with a purpose, you're feeding ducks with someone new you even took a swing with a 6 iron and i heard you sold your orthopedic shoes

it must be your new love that makes you look younger your cheeks have that old rosy glow it should be me you fuss with everynight and wake up everyday to play bingo
and wake up everyday to play bingo

hip hop redneck i got baggy overalls, my colors are flannel no laces in my boots, i'm too hot to handle oshkosh bandanna, can of skoal in my pocket if you ain't milked a cow, homey, don't knock-it now i don't wear my hats all turned around sleeves on my shirts don't drag the ground this john deere hat sits true on my head i guess that's why my neck is red i'm a head buttin', beer spewin', demo derby wreck a cornbread eatin', guitar pickin', hip-hop redneck... word i got my edumakayshun in a country school i never dis my mama, and my word is true no tattoo's, piercings, needles or drugs but give me a beer and watch me chugg i'm a farm boy, grow plenty of corn i'm a church boy, ain't never seen porn i'm a country boy, i like george strait i love my truck and i stay out late

come on out to the country to chill and refine cruisin' the hood in my low ride combine show you the babes and we can bust a rhyme hangin' at the dairy queen 'til milking time forgettable who i see, what i do, will never be, a concern to you clearly a ghost, a transparent host one veil of a man, you can see through... forgettable... forgettable i'm forgettable, never really here forgettable, made to disappear try to recall, you don't remember at all i'm forgettable, forgettable i'm invisible, introduce me twice, i'm divisible, but smiling nice there'll be no chatter, 'cause i don't matter the world spins round because of you... forgettable... forgettable a little bit jumpy

i see you out there making your moves, i see you out there getting down on grooves you're here having fun, running around, knocking back juice, feeling the sound you might be exciteable, working out the bumpy but girl i think you're a little bit jumpy a little bit jumpy, working on some steps tonight a little bit jumpy, steady rockin', what a sight grindin' out a song, girl it ain't so wrong ain' t no one here gonna say it ain't right oooh she so jumpy, a little bit jumpy, oooh she so jumpy now bring it down baby, let your motor cool, but don't turn it off, get some more fuel keep the slowburn burnin' deep within, bring it out to dance time and again i know you're exciteable, working out the bumpy girl you know it, you're a little bit jumpy

girl you could make an angel take a drink girl you could make a statue weep and moan girl you can melt the strings on this guitar you're too hot baby to be left alone i ain't retired, i'm livin' well, don't need them bossin' me don't need those credit cards, don't need cable tv don't want those hollow promises, don't care what papers say don't need their lame advice to live everyday more than the blues some folks love that fightin' and fussin' some people love that feudin' and cussin' it must keep their love alive some couples love that pushin' and shovin' i don't think that i call that lovin' i don't get into all that jive more trouble than i could use said i couldn't lose, i'm a walkin' bruise, she gave me the black and blues she whipped out those studs and chains leather cuffs and spiked earrings she was ready for a little romance renaissance man you told me you met mister perfect said he could fix everything in sight writes poems with his left hand, paints pictures with his right plays 10 games of chess with his teeth, they're so white in every way he's a renaissance man a raphael, da vinci with a sun tan he fixed your plumbing quoting war and peace your renaissance man's got the expertise he can cook gourmet french or schezwan hot while calculating the ecliptic orbit of mars signs his book with his left hand, plays chopin with his right poses for a movie poster, he designed last night he ain't doin' what you want him to do it ain't because he's in bad health he just might be in love with himself skin need to get next to it, you can't live without it it drives you insane when you get to close you see it everywhere, you glance and you stare you got to have it like a junkie needs a dose skin... smooth and silky, skin... dark to milky skin, skin, skin, it's all over you skin... wet and dreamy, skin... hot and steamy skin, skin, skin, you know what to do... just get a little skin you touch softly at first, that doesn't quench the thirst you hold on tight and feel it take control you taste the sweat of heat, it will soon be complete you feel the explosion down in your soul best i can do bossman asked me to work a little harder, stay a little longer be a company martyr i said someday i might do it your way, but it's the best i can do... for now it's the best i can do, if it don't please you i'm sorry for wasting your time i'll get better, the longer we're together it's the best i can do this time baby asked me not to tell her a lie, but i couldn't look her in the eye she said someday i might have to pay, but it's the best i can do... for now

she asked me if i could love her stronger, cuddle some more, stay a little longer i said someday i might do it that way, but it's the best i can do... for now all i can do is give it my best, and pray to god i pass the test i'll keep on trying to accommodate, if my best won't do you'll have to wait when i dream

i want for nothing, got all i need no one gets hurt, no one bleeds there's your love never ending or cold i write the stories and watch them unfold so beautiful when i dream i spend hours touching your face life is always good when i dream my world is a wonderful place no evil fears chasing me no greed for riches, all is free no hate or blame, no jealousy a place where i can simply be when i dream, i command space and time a man more than flesh but not divine i'd be content to live forever in my world if i could have you to call my girl... my girl... my girl... my girl funny what love can be baby i know your reputation, it doesn't matter to me i can't give it consideration, i don't care what you used to be baby you can change tomorrow, i'm gonna give you all my time baby you can leave the sorrow, just put it out of your mind funny what love can be to bring you back to me funny what love can do to change the things in you i can help with love and affection i can try and understand your ways i can give you my protection every hour of everyday darling your past can stay behind, it doesn't have to show look ahead for tomorrow shines, i'm here for you, i won't go i thought i'd never see the day when you'd come back my way i still love you, i'll be here for you and i just gotta say my desire blue eyes, blonde hair, green eyes, i don't care hour-glass figure and a sexy smile brunette, redhead, brown eyes knock me dead tapered legs long as a country mile women, ladies, beautiful girls, they surely do rock my world can't help myself they set me on fire women, ladies, beautiful girls, oh yeah, they rock my world all those babies are my desire shapely hips, ruby lips to kiss, any color at all skin as soft as a feather bed long as women, keep on loving, keep on loving and giving there'll never be another thought in my head

the way they walk in the summer rain, i tell you man, they drive me insane no matter what i do, i can't get enough they way they flirt and tease, they bring me to my knees it's so hard not to beg, baby pretty please
