next to last call i'll have another, no maybe two, just tell me when i'm through i've lost count and my wallet's growin' thin set 'em up neat and straight, i'll be here 'til way past late

well she poured me another shot of courage, and propped me up against the wall and as she lifted a few more dollars, she winked and said, next to last call let me have another shot, my credit's good, i can't stop i've lost control and got her on my mind hit me again before you close, need it bad, lord only knows i've lost control and got her on my mind

chorus

well i can't leave until last call, i'll have another, i won't fall she's still runnin' through my memory drink myself sober, she'll disappear, i'll never need another beer drinkin' from an empty glass it will be

and as she lifted my last dollar she winked and said, buddy that's all she winked and said, it's your last call always a part of me i still see where he's been, i close my eyes and pretend he'll always be the first one that i see sometimes think i hear him sing, i'm still wearing his wedding ring he'll always be the lovin' part of me when i'm dreamin' of a fantasy, he's always the first one i see and when it's only my reality, he's always a part of me i miss his inspirations, i miss his little flirtations he'll always be the first one that i see i still go to our old places and see familiar faces

even though i miss him so, i can close my eyes and go to where he's waiting for me and there i hold him tight, he tells me it's all right and i'll always be the first one that he sees

chorus

he's always a part of me

my name ain't jesus you keep calling me for advice, twenty-four hours a day i don't know what you want to hear, i'm running out of things to say he's cheatin' on you and runnin' around, i hear you crying day after day you know i ain't supernatural , and this is all i've got to say my name ain't jesus baby, can't save your love with him even if i'm not the savior, i'll help you start lovin' again my name ain't jesus darling, i can't hear your prayers above the only thing i can do, is resurrect your love when we talk all i hear you saying, is how he's done you wrong i can't understand what you see in him, you know he don't belong i pray to god you'll see the light and listen to what i say an angel like you could save me, i'd love you for all my days one more second runnin' through the memories of your laughter thinkin' about all the good times we shared together walkin' down the road of your sweet kisses dreamin' about your loving i'll be missin' one more second closer to forgetting you one more second gone out of my way one more second closer to forgetting you one more second every night and every day dancin' through the music we played together wishin' for a chance to love you again rememberin' the good times you gave to me and cryin' for all the times that will never be

chorus

you could've given me more time to right those wrongs in your sight you could've given me one more second for a lifetime of loving you right more than a friend how many nights you've called me, needing a ride at closing time drinking alone and couldn't drive, but you say you're doing fine out there searching for him, the superman of your dreams he never shows so it's me you call to keep from being alone and i find myself wrapped in your arms time and time again you tell me i'm not your true love baby i'm just more than a friend i don't think you can see the forest or even the tallest tree you're looking for somebody and that somebody is me i've loved you for so long, you don't see me as the one darling i'm always here with you to greet the morning sun

can't you see how much you mean to me and how i want you so isn't what we have all the love you need, you know i'll never go walkin' my heart went dreaming last night after we made love woke up feeling something was wrong there was a letter taped to her ring she told me she was long gone, gone now i'm walkin' my heart all over this town you see me wearing it on my sleeve i'm walkin' my heart, trackin' her down gonna ask her why did she leave yeah, i'm walkin'... yeah you know i'm walkin' didn't say nothin', where she was goin', didn't leave me any clues asking myself if there's another man, i might start singing the blues

i went to sleep feeling so right, i wake up and she's outta sight no time to think, just react, got to find her now and get her back

chorus

i'll take my heart to the end of the world i'll find out if she's still my girl just enough

don't know another lady who's so intelligent and refined you lecture on astrophysics while tasting the finest wine your i.q. must be a million to quote shakespeare on the fly why do you share it all with me, baby why oh why am i just enough to keep you here just enough to be satisfied just enough to make you want some more just enough to keep you by my side

just enough to keep you by my side it's hard for me to understand a woman of your means you could be with a p.h.d. or a genius in between i don't know what you see in me but i'm grateful eternally you're the smartest thing that's ever happened to me

enough to keep you smiling, enough so you call my name enough to occupy your nights, enough to love you right just enough to love you right i need to fall in love again i've been without it longer than i had it, so long ago i can't remember when i think i'm ready, my heart is steady, i need to fall in love again

give my heart just one more chance
i need to fall in love again shoot me cupid, full of romance i thought i'd never think about these feelings i didn't think my broken heart would mend when i saw you walkin', my body started talkin' i need to fall in love again

girl i want to feel like i'm living again, you should be much more than a friend i think you know it, your hungry eyes show it, this is the time for the lovin' to begin desert breeze standing here in the middle of nowhere talking to a million points of light missing you next to me on this beautiful summer night i can almost feel you whispering to me that you're cold and i should hold you tight is it a dream under this summer night and your memory is in this desert breeze you're with me as long as heaven's above you're watching me in the stars i see desert breeze will you carry me to my love the touch of the desert or you i feel the caressing wind or your kiss in this desert is everything about you that i miss holding you was life at it's best i'll never feel a love like that again in your heart is where my soul has been

a wisp of perfume, did i hear i love you your comet races across the sky hold out your hand to take your lover man somewhere on the wind where love never dies our next kiss

you say we've grown apart, you say the fire has died you say i've broken your heart, you say i never tried looking for excuses, are you wanting to go can i make you believe i still love you so let's make our next kiss like our first kiss i believe you'll change your mind 'cause if our next kiss works like our first kiss we'll fall back in love this time i know it's been hard, these times are so tough we need each other more, tell the world that's enough please believe me when i say i've been true you need to understand, our love will get us through let's light our fire tonight and feel it burn so hot nothing can get in our way, when we are all we got the wrong side of the bar well she sits down across from me, i give her a smile and ask what'll it be she flutters those baby blues and says a martini i ask if she wants vodka or gin, she says whatever will make her sin and do things to a man that's obseney... and don't you know i'm on the wrong side of the bar again tonight mixing up the potions to make her feel right which dude will thank me later for making his night a consumater but i'm left all alone, no angel to walk me home, i'm on the wrong side of the bar tonight she's lickin' her lips and i can tell, that my lovin' would treat her well but the job gets busy and i can't socialize every man buys her a drink, while i mix 'em i have to think what it would be like to fall into her eyes... but you know

(same first 3 lines)

not even a number to phone, no sin that i atone

i'm on the wrong side of the bar tonight

she's leavin' with my friend, he winks givin' me a grin

i'm on the wrong side of the bar tonight

i'm pulling taps and pourin', makin' money but i ain't scoring across the bar she becomes that fantasy girl i'd be a miracle if a dream walked in, sat down and had a glass of zin took me home and slowly rocked my world... but you know

at least i'll drink top shelf, i'll be at denny's by myself

i'm on the wrong side of the bar tonight

singin' to hear myself can't remember the words to this song, but nobody's listenin' anyway even if i sing a bit out of key, do y'all even care if i play you just want to sit and talk about love's crazy ways nobody hears how i'm singin' or what chords i really play just singin' to hear myself, anyone listenin' to me just pickin' to please myself, i just love playin' for me y'all come out to have some fun, it's good after working all week laughin' and jokin' about who's with who and still on a winnin' streak i'd really love to join you, but they tell me i gotta play why don't you all put a tip in my jug, i just might decide to stay

chorus

i'll try my best to do waylon, some willie and john prine i'll throw in some hank williams and i'll even do my patsy cline i'll do my best merle haggard, i'll sing you a little george strait i might even do some rolling stones, if you tip me it'd be great she ain't cliché

my baby don't follow all the current trends she ain't caught up in who has what her mind ain't bent on being someone else she's satisfied with what she's got she's a one of kind girl of mine she does things her own way she ain't no video or catalog clone my baby ain't cliché (what's that you say) my baby ain't cliché (oh) she don't waste time on spreading' gossip when she talks she says what she means she invents new ways of loving this man my baby knocks me outta my jeans

chorus

now baby drives a big ole truck, when she wears her cowgirl hat it ain't for show, i'll have you know, she works her ranch like that i bet she never does anything like anybody else... kinda unique used to be wannabe

chorus

i took my lumps in barroom brawls sang through the smoke of sweaty dance halls slept in backseats, showered in malls ate from cans and changed in stalls i used to be a wannabe finally made it so they say the real deal, on top of the hill an overnight success in a day i'm a used to be wannabe... a used to be wannabe

20 years of paying my dues so many doubted, said i would lose i kept on playing, working the blues now i'm the new kid, i'm the big news

chorus

this used to be wannabe had to fight for everything this wannabe is gonnabe grabbing the golden ring i made it by giving thanks and sharing what i had that's how this wannabe got to be the one you're hearing sing it ain't much in the time i've spent with you love has blossomed i see you when i dream and in every breath i take i can't give you much but an i love you so much i pray you'll keep me if love is all i ever make it ain't much but an i love you i don't say it litely or to take up space it ain't much but an i love you baby i can't go through life without kissing your sweet face i give to you all i have and ever hope to be to see you smile just makes my day shine all i can give you ever, is i love you forever let me hold you close for all time

and when we're old and grey, i hope you smile and say i'm so blessed you're still in my life if i hear you and understand, that i'm still your man i'll love you for being more than this man's wife
